

About Us

Scribr is a startup founded by Brennan Sun, Sarah Ellis, and Kyle Anderson; they began developing this platform as their senior project at the University of San Francisco.

They have since expanded Scribr and now have an office based in San Francisco. The web application is rapidly growing in popularity and now hosts over ten thousand users.

See our work

Scan our QR code to subscribe or start making content today

Contact Us

1000 Broad St. San Francisco,
CA 91234

(654) 626-5413

s.management@scribr.com

Content At Your Fingertips

Create content for thousands to see and subscribe to view the brilliant work of others.

scribr.com

Features

- Intuitive User Interface
- Variety of Content
- Helpful Resources
- Easy to Earn

Scribr

Subscribers

This platform allows all users to subscribe to a variety of content. Scribr's explore page is broken into categories and the advanced filters allow new users to search for content they desire.

Creators

Scribr gives creators a platform to display their unique content to thousands of potential viewers. The web applications makes managing subscribers and payments simple. Scribr even provides tools/resources for creators such as business advice and technical support.